

Join Us to Hear

Dr. Atul Gawande

Author of Being Mortal
A Live-streamed Presentation

Monday Feb. 13th, 4:30pm – 6pm

In partnership with

Eastham Public Library at the Library
Harwich Council On Aging at the Harwich Community Center
Chatham Council On Aging at the Chatham Community Center

In honor of the 15th anniversary of Beacon Hill Village in Boston and the Village Movement, Beacon Hill Village and the Village to Village Network will live-stream a talk by Dr. Atul Gawande to “villages” across the United States, including Nauset Neighbors.

Dr. Atul Gawande, MD, MPH, the author of the seminal book Being Mortal, will speak about the importance of choice and the value of community as we grow older.

There will be a question and answer session which will include questions from the remote locations.

Nauset Neighbors is an all-volunteer organization helping seniors remain independent in their own homes.

For more information about the event or Nauset Neighbors please visit nausetneighbors.org or call 508-514-7067